How do people change their minds?

How can we be a person of influence in a changing, sometimes turbulent world?

Michael McQueen has presented to 500 000 people across five continents since 2004, helping people to become better communicators. He has expertly taught people around the world how to spark curiosity, defuse defensiveness, and master the art of persuasion.

Joined by an expert Q&A panel, this one night only event promises to be an unforgettable opportunity. Come hear an international speaker who will provide tools to make a lasting impact with your conversations, encouraging us to be persuasive in sharing our faith.
